A B I L L,

MAKING appropriations for the support of the Navy of the United States, during the year one thousand eight hundred and five.

1 Be it enacted, by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3 That for defraying the expenses of the navy of the United States,
4 during the year one thousand eight hundred and five, the follow-
5 ing sums be, and the same are hereby respectively appropriated,
6 that is to say:

7 For the pay and subsistence of the officers, and the pay of 8 the seamen,

9 For provisions,

10 For medicine, instruments, hospital stores, and all expenses,
11 on account of the sick,

12 For repairs of vessels, store rent, and other contingent expen-
13 ses,

14 For the pay, and subsistence of the marine corps, including pro-
15 visions for those on shore, and forage for the staff,

16 For cloathing for the same,

17 For military stores for the same,

18 For medicine, medical services, hospital stores, and all expenses
19 on account of the sick belonging to the marine corps,

20 For quarter masters', and barrack masters' stores, officers travel-21 ling expenses, armourers', and carpenters' bills, fuel, premium for 22 enlisting, music, and other contingent expenses,

23 For the expense of navy yards, docks, and other improvements,
24 the pay of superintendants, store keepers, clerks, and laborers,

25 For completing the marine barracks at the city of Washington,

1 SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the several sums herein
2 specifically appropriated, shall be paid, first, out of any balance re-3 maining unexpended of former appropriations for the support of 4 the Navy, and secondly, out of any monies in the treasury, not 5 otherwise appropriated.
